Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 6:27-38

In this gospel, we continue to listen to Jesus' Sermon on the Plain. Today's focus is love of enemies. Jesus challenges us not only to not retaliate against one's enemies, but also to do them well: love them, do good to them, bless and pray for them. Then Jesus gives practical examples of how we are to show our love for the enemy: turn the other cheek when he strikes you, give your tunic to the one who takes your cloak, lend your money without expecting it back. Jesus tells us: 14 "If we only love those who love us, we are no better than the pagans."

The real test of our Christianity is our ability to love those who dislike, despise, or hurt us. Obviously, such love is impossible without a full-hearted cooperation with the grace of God. Jesus doesn't stop there. He goes on to say that we must stop judging and condemning, and we are to give generously to others.

In all of this, Jesus is our model. While dying on the cross, he forgave Pilate, the soldiers, the crowd who yelled, "Crucify him!", and his disciples for abandoning him. Also, David models forgiveness for us in the first reading; and Paul, we assume, forgave all those who stoned him, beat him up, and spread nasty rumors about him. Modern day disciples like Pope John Paul, Nelson Mandela, and those who forgive the people who murdered their families all show us that with the grace of God we can forgive what seems unforgivable. The more we work at forgiving all who have hurt us, the more we will become like Jesus. We will become a living image of the compassionate and forgiving Christ in the world.

Lenten Retreat Time of Repentance, Prayer and Fasting

Saturday, March 23rd
Mass: 8:30 am, Retreat: 9:00 — 1:00 PM
Hyland Hall

Presenter: Deacon John Langmead

Lent season is a time to recognize our link to baptismal renewal. We are called not just to abstain from sin during Lent, but to true conversion of our hearts and minds as followers of Christ. We recall those waters in which we were baptized into Christ's death, died to sin and evil, and began new life in Christ.

*Everyone is invited, especially leaders of ministries and organizations.
Hope to see you there!*

Presentador:

Diacono Jose Ibarra

La temporada de Cuaresma es un tiempo para reconocer nuestro enlace en nuestra renovación bautismal. Estamos llamados no solo a abstenernos de pecar durante cuaresma, sino también a la conversión verdadera de nuestros corazones y mentes como seguidores de Jesucristo. Recordamos aquellas aguas en las que fuimos bautizados en la muerte de Cristo, morimos al pecado y al mal, y comenzamos una nueva vida en Cristo.

Todos están invitados, especialmente los líderes de ministerios y organizaciones. ¡Los esperamos!
